Introduction

Moulton Conventions, owners of SC Horror began in New Hampshire where experience and passion curated over years resulted in 9 successful conventions.

Owners, J and Natasha Moulton relocated to South Carolina midlands to pursue further endeavors.

However, they were greeted with an obvious need in the area for an event with which fans can celebrate their love of the horror genre in a family oriented environment. Along with the support and encouragement of locals and small businesses; SC Horror was formed.

The mission of SC Horror Convention is to provide a safe and welcoming event to promote fandom, creativity, and diversity to families and fans of the horror genre.

We place emphasis on the value of supporting local and small businesses while supporting the communities that we work and live within.

About The Event

SC Horror Convention is an annual event featuring artists, vendors, celebrity guests and local businesses celebrating the horror genre in local communities. This two-day event is packed full of activities, shopping and fun. We feature celebrity guests, authors, and other well-known persons in the fields of all things spooky and unique with an opportunity for attendees to greet and interact. Saturday festivities close out in the evening and offer the opportunity for attendees to explore Columbia and surrounding areas with the traditional after party.

The second annual SC Horror Convention will be hosted at the Columbia Metropolitan Convention Center, on September 14 and 15th 2024. The first event was a remarkable success; bringing in approximately 3000+ attendees and vendors. The enthusiasm and excitement has preceded the convention, assuring the continued success 2024 will also bring.

SC Horror prides itself in providing families the opportunity to deliver memorable fun at an affordable price point for the entire family ensuring the success for our vendors, and sponsors! With your help, SC Horror will be even more successful.
